Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Weekly Prayer List

A prayer for this week

O God the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven:
we beseech you, leave us not comfortless, but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Conference on Religion, Environment and the Common Good

This conference discusses how the concept of “the Common Good” can resonate across diverse faith traditions as they seek to address the current ecological crisis.

 When? Thursday 19 June at 9am–5pm; Friday 20 June at 9am–1pm

 Where? Claggett Auditorium, Canterbury Cathedral Lodge

 Cost? FREE but booking is essential

Lectures will be focusing on the late Pope Francis’ ground-breaking encyclical Laudato Si’; Christian voices from Anglican, Orthodox and non-conformist traditions; and Jewish and Christian theologies of the land, striving for a generosity of vision in an often polarised and fractured world.

Visit the Canterbury Christ Church University website for a more detailed breakdown of the days’ contents and booking information.

Appointment of the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury

Statement of Needs

Diocese of Canterbury
CHANGED LIVES • CHANGING LIVES

Statement of Needs

The process to identify the next Archbishop of Canterbury is underway and the Diocese of Canterbury’s Vacancy in see Committee – the group that manages and oversees the Diocese’s role in the process – has published its Statement of Needs.

The document incorporates views which were gathered as part of a public consultation as well as explaining what life in our diocese is like for those who live, work and worship here.

The Statement of Needs will be read by candidates as well as the Crown Nominations Commission (CNC), the body that is meeting to pray, reflect and ultimately nominate someone to be the 106th Archbishop of Canterbury. The CNC will make its nomination to the Prime Minister who, if he accepts will advise His Majesty the King, who will formally appoint the next Archbishop of Canterbury.
